

12-Powers Shape My Life

I choose to live my life with zeal,
And every moment faith to feel,
So Strength can be what I'm about
Through renunciation of all doubt.
I have the power to succeed
And all the wisdom that I need
To let order out of chaos reign,
Through understanding on a deeper plane.
My imagination lights a million fires.
My will gives shape to these desires,
So that life is good, fulfilled and free.
And Love is who I choose to be.
